Qualifications

Before the commissioner can issue a referee license, the applicant must produce sufficient information and documentation to support their proficiency and complete understanding of the Minnesota Rules, the Association of Boxing Commissions Uniform Rules of Boxing, the Association of Boxing Commissions Regulatory Guidelines, the Uniform Mixed Martial Arts Rules, the Association of Boxing Commission Referee Rules and Guidelines and their knowledge of boxing and/or martial arts.

Items which may be of assistance to the commissioner in evaluating your application include, but are not limited to:

- any certificate of completion of a referee's training program from another state or other regulating body under the Association of Boxing Commissions;
- a resume with at least three professional references who can verify your years of experience;
- a log of your experience as an amateur and/or professional referee; and
- licensure from another state or regulatory body that regulates combative sports.

If you have no prior experience, but are interested in becoming a licensed referee, please contact the Department of Labor and Industry, Office of Combative Sports for additional information.

Data practices notice

The information you as an individual, or business entity, provide in this application will be used by the Department of Labor and Industry staff members to determine if you meet the license requirements. Before a license is issued to you, Minnesota Statute Section 270C.72, subd. 4, requires you to provide your Social Security number and, where applicable, your Minnesota Business Identification number on this application. The other information is required to process your application. Failure to provide the requested information may delay the processing of your application or may be grounds for denying your application. Under Minnesota Statute Section 13.41, the information you provide on this application, except for you name and address, is private data while the application is pending. Disclosure of this information to others may occur as authorized or required by law, including but not limited to the Attorney General's Office, the Department of Revenue, the Department of Human Services, upon court order, or for the purpose of verification and investigation. After you are licensed, the information you provide, except for your Social Security number and data otherwise protected, becomes public data and may be released to anyone upon request.
