Registration is now open for the 2013 Workers' Compensation Summit – Looking Back, Moving Ahead: 100 Years of Workers' Compensation in Minnesota, Thursday, Sept. 12 at Crowne Plaza Hotel in St. Paul, Minn. Visit www.dli.mn.gov/Summit for complete details and registration information.

Employers, employees, insurers, medical providers, legislators, attorneys and all others are invited to attend. Don't miss the general sessions and breakout sessions focusing on current issues affecting the workers' compensation system and discussions of ways to improve processes and services that affect employers and injured workers.

An overview of planned topics and invited speakers is available online now at www.dli.mn.gov/Summit. Some of the topics to be addressed are recent administrative and judicial decisions, addiction issues, effects of sleep disorders and deprivation, head injuries, Medicare and post-traumatic stress disorder.

For only $125, summit participants receive all conference materials, plus lunch, dinner and refreshments during the conference.

This year, there are also exhibitor and sponsor opportunities. Visit www.dli.mn.gov/Summit for complete information.

This summit is sponsored by the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry and the Minnesota Workers' Compensation Advisory Council. No taxpayer dollars will be used to fund this event.

Continuing education credits have been applied for.
