Building Partnerships to Meet Workforce Needs

- Do you feel like you’re recruiting and retaining a workforce alone on a deserted island?

Who do you partner with to meet your workforce needs?

* Attendees shared how they partner with community-based organizations like Goodwill-Easter Seals as well as how industry groups like chambers of commerce and Minnesota Tech Association can be good partners as well.
How did you find these partners?

*Attendees shared how leveraging connections to chambers of commerce can be a good way to find partners. In addition, one college shared how by reaching out to the academic program of interest or the college’s customized training departments that can help get connected and set up to develop new partnerships. They also shared how getting connected to CareerForce centers can bring connections to new partners.
How do you make the partnership work for you, the employer?

*Attendees shared how it is important to set goals of the partnership that will be mutually beneficial from the onset. It is also important for the employer to ensure that they will have access to students who will be prospective employees.
What do you as the employer offer your partner to help them?

*Attendees shared how employers can be part of curriculum advisory panels or host interns and tours of their companies, as well as by connecting with area high schools. They also shared the importance of setting expectations early and ensuring that any concerns about the partnership can be alleviated quickly.
What suggestions do you have for others on how to make new partners?

*Attendees suggested the importance of setting clear expectations. In addition, attendees noted that getting started with a CareerForce Center or local community-based organization can be a good way to get started in making new partners for workforce issues.
What is the Youth Skills Training (YST) Program?

- Supporting partnerships between industry and education
- Creating opportunities for students to learn about industries
- Providing industry related classes and safety training
- Establishing safe, healthy and meaningful paid work experiences
- Developing a pathway for future talent
Current YST eligible industries:

- Advanced Manufacturing
- Agriculture
- Automotive
- Health Care
- Information Technology
Decline in Labor Force Participation:

- Demand for workers has never been higher
- State’s labor force remains below pre pandemic level
- Wave of workers reaching retirement age
- Not enough high-skilled workers
- Impact on Minnesota’s job rebound pace
YST Program Creates:

• Education/Employer partnerships
• Positive industry exposure opportunities
• Direct access to students interested in your industry
• Chance to train and retain youth (future workforce)
YST Program Goals

GOALS:
1. Support the creation of local partnerships

High Schools
Employers
Chambers of Commerce
Workforce Groups
Nonprofit organization
Postsecondary institutions
GOALS:

2. introduce students to careers in high-growth, high-demand industries

3. prepare students for successful careers

4. address the shortage of skilled employees
Learn & Earn Model

Develop paid work experiences for 16 and 17-year-old “student learners” to participate in safe, healthy and meaningful on-the-job training at employer sites.

Paid Work Experiences
YST program requirements:

1. Industry exposure opportunities for students of all ages
2. Industry related classroom instruction for HS credit
3. Industry recognized credentials/certifications
4. Paid work experience for students over 16 years of age
5. At least 80% of students graduate when eligible
6. At least 60% of students receive an industry credential

By meeting YST requirements and receiving approval from DLI, student learners are allowed to work in industries otherwise prohibited by child-labor laws.
YST Programs can be approved with or without YST grant funding

| Step 1: Employer submits | - Proof of Workers’ Compensation
|                          | - Equipment & tool review (Form 1) |
| Step 2: School submits   | - Class syllabus from industry related class(es) for high school credit |

Safe, healthy and meaningful paid work experiences
A YST safety meeting is not:

• The YST safety meeting is not an OSHA inspection
• The YST safety meeting does not result in citations or fines
• The YST safety meeting will not trigger an OSHA inspection
• The YST safety meeting is not entered into a data base or recorded for any purpose other than YST program approval
YST Program Grant Funding:

• Total of $1,000,000 in grant funding awarded each year
• Grants up to $100,000 awarded to local partnerships
• Two-year grant period
• To date, 38 YST grants have been awarded throughout the state
• Next YST grant opportunity in early 2023
